Changes in Backpack Buddies

The church recently received a letter from Leavenworth Backpack Buddies informing us of changes in the program. This letter is available in the church office if you want to read more details. The highlights of the changes follow.

--The food supplier in the future will be Harvesters of Kansas City which services 17 counties, none of which has a Backpack Buddies program. They use a similar program called BackSnak, which provides a larger amount of food to the child and family, and we will be switching to BackSnak, as a result.

--Because BackSnak provides more food, the cost per child will rise from $199.00 to $310.00. Our program cost will increase to $96,100.00 for the 2024-25 school year.

--Harvesters will only deliver food to organizations that are 501c3 charities which are required to submit to regular food inspections. Studdard's (which currently takes food deliveries) does not qualify for delivery, and neither do most churches in Leavenworth. As a result, Harvester's will be delivering food directly to our school districts which will, in turn, deliver food to the schools. This means that we will no longer "pack" backpacks in the churches.

--The current Leavenworth Backpack Buddies Board will continue to be active, confirming food deliveries, monitoring the number of recipients, and collecting/making donations to Harvester's to cover the BackSnak program.

Change is difficult, especially after 17 years of successful program support in our community. Many people will miss being directly involved in packing the food. However, we continue to count on you to provide donations to this worthy cause. If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to a member of the Leavenworth Backpack Buddies (named in the above-referenced letter), which includes our own Ruth Kenton (913-683-5002).
